AccuCoat inc. profiled as key player in Optical Coatings Markets report by Global Industry Analysts Inc.

A recent comprehensive report from GIA forecasts the global market for Optical Coatings to reach nearly $10 billion in the next several years due to the versatility of its application. Increasing demand for transmissive, or anti-reflective (AR) coatings, reflective coatings and optical filters from several industries such as, Healthcare, Military, Electronics, Transportation, Construction and others are major factors for the driving growth.
